

FAMILY SATURDAY

2017 FALL | WINTER SCHEDULE

Family Saturday takes place on the last Saturday of each month. The cost is $5/members and $7/non-members. Please pre-register online or by phone at 250-545-3173

BOLD ACRYLIC PAINTINGS INSPIRED BY ANCESTORS OF THE COLUMBIA

Saturday, September 30, 2017 • 1pm

Enjoy a tour of Ancestors of the Columbia and learn about the old stories that inspired this exhibition. Then we will paint bold acrylic paintings inspired by nature and water in Sheldon's signature style! This month Family Saturday is FREE to attend as it is a part of the annual Culture Days weekend.

BLACK CAT MONO-PRINTS INSPIRED BY KANDINSKY

Saturday, October 28, 2017 • 1pm

Join us this month and learn how to create spooky black cat mono-prints inspired by Wassily Kandinsky! First we will create our cat design and learn about drawing stylized animals. Then we will use the print-making press to create our design and mount it on cardstock so it can be used a card!

PICASSO INSPIRED CUBISM TREE ORNAMENTS

Saturday, November 25, 2017 • 1pm

Join us this month and learn about Picasso and cubism! We will create our own cubism inspired face tree ornaments with colourful oven bake clay. Experiment with shape, colour and form in this fun and festive sculptural exploration!

COLOURFUL CHIHULY INSPIRED SCULPTURES

Saturday, December 16, 2017 • 1pm

Join us for Family Saturday this month and learn about contemporary glass artist and sculptor Dale Chihuly. Then we will create our own Chihuly inspired sculptures using plastic cups and sharpie markers. Enjoy festive music and treats during the December Family Saturday workshop.
